Zachary “Zach” J. Levi concentrates his practice in the areas of real estate transactions. As a firm associate, he currently assists senior partners who handle a wide range of commercial real estate matters including acquisitions, dispositions, financings, developments, closings, leasings, and purchase and sale of assets. Additionally, Zach assists senior partners in providing strategic and practical counsel in the complexities of condominium deconversions.

Zach’s client representation range from public and private sector entities, investors, owners of small to large-scale developments, industrial facilities, office buildings, retail shopping centers, to banks and financial institutions in real estate lending transactions, developers of mixed-use projects, among others. He also assists in counseling purchasers and sellers, landlords and tenants in routine to complex residential real estate matters.
